

Parmesan Dreams - Parmesan Dreams

1) i'm just a dog (4:08)

*I'm just a dog
I'll do anything for your love
I sit at the door
And wait for your arrival
Thinking about where you've gone
Wondering who is it that you want
You're keeping me calm
But who am I when you're gone*

*Is it just me I'm waiting on
Is there somewhere I went wrong
Because I feel the same as I was
But all fucked up*

*I'm just a dog
I'll do anything for your love
I keep by your side
And wash your tears when you cry
Thinking about where've been
Wondering what it is that I mean
I'm feeling let down
But you know I'll stick around*

*Is it just me I'm waiting on
Is there somewhere I went wrong
Because I feel the same as I was
But all fucked up*

*When I start to go
Will I be on my own
When the lights go down
Will you still be around*

*Is it just me I'm waiting on
Is there somewhere I went wrong
Because I feel the same as I was
But all fucked up*

I'm just a dog

2) once in a while (3:23)

*Feeling outgrown
I should've known
That once in a while
You'd light up my phone*

*Feeling left out
Casting self doubt
But once in a while
I figure it out*

*Felling let down
Drop into the ground
But Once in a while
You carry me out*

*Wandering around
This labyrinth unfound
But once in a while
I find my way out*

3) idk what i'm looking for (3:45)

*I don't know what I'm looking for
Some days I stand at the door
Thinking about all the things
That could've been
And even more*

*Some days I stand near the light
Feel the heat on my skin
Something nice
It's keeping me up at night I don't know why*

*Maybe I'm caving in
To my soul from my skin
And right back out again
Maybe I'm losing it*

*I don't know what I'm looking for
Some days I stare at the floor
Thinking of all the ways
For it to cave
Swallow me whole
Some days I open the blinds
Listen close for a voice
No replies
It's keeping me up at night I don't know why*

*Maybe I'm caving in
To my soul from my skin
Maybe I'm losing it*

*In the morning
It will begin again
But right now it's different
It all falls to place*

4) don't feed the wolves (4:26)

*Don't feed the wolves
They're lying to you*

*Don't give them hope
They're right before you*

*Strangers are always the strangest at night
And out goes the light*

And I'm gonna love you with all of my might It's too late to fight

Credits

Thank you to Abe and Andrew for their valuable time and incredible playing.

Thank you to my dear friends, who listened to demos a hundred times with me, providing crucial feedback and support.

Lastly a very special, heartfelt, thank you to my parents for their continued love and support. I love you!

Lilly, you were best dog a family could have asked for, we love and miss you every day!

Parmesan Dreams was recorded pre-pandemic with Andrew Tachine (drums, percussion), Abe Nouri (keys), Will Smillie (vocals, guitar, bass). The band worked remotely over the course of several months, sending tracks back and forth, late at night, wring, getting feedback, iterating, the culmination leading to Parmesan Dreams' self-titled EP.
